

Now that mom's
been diagnosed with Alzheimer's
you're faced with
some very tough questions.

We've got some very loving answers.

Aging parents diagnosed with progressive dementia are in need of more care than you could possibly provide at home.

At The Pines in nearby Easton, the Alzheimer's dementia unit has specially trained doctors, clinicians and staff offering care, warmth, security, and respect while helping restore dignity to your loved ones suffering from advanced memory impairment.

Call 410-822-4000 or visit at any time. We're here to help.
